

In an effort to make using printable internet coupons a positive experience for our guests and to help prevent the abuse of counterfeit coupons in our stores, our stores will follow the guidelines below for redemption on Internet Coupons.

festival foods Internet Coupon Policy

We will accept valid internet coupons with values up to $3 and all coupons from “festfoods.com”
We do not accept “Free Product” internet coupons.

- We will accept all “valid” internet coupons with a value of $3 or less
- We will not accept “Free Product” coupons printed by a consumer from the internet unless they are identified as a Festival Foods coupon.
 - “Free product” coupons should always be pre-printed and sent via postal mail or published in media, and printed double-sided and/or on security paper.
 - “Free Product” coupons are a “red flag”. Manufacturers avoid generating this type of coupon, especially free cases or cartons of product.
 - Buy-one-get-one-free (BOGO), coupons are not acceptable as they offer a free product.
- We will accept all manufacturer coupons that are available for print at www.festfoods.com.
 - All coupons printed from www.festfoods.com print with “Festival Foods” on the side of the coupon
 - We will accept Festival Foods internet coupons with a value greater than $3 and/or for “free product”
